

In this conference we are considering how to emulate the spiritual leadership of our Lord Jesus Christ. We will learn insights into effectively leading others toward spiritual maturity and equipping them for the “work of service.” This is foundational to the elder’s work and crucial to leaders at all levels in the church. Christ-focused leadership puts the emphasis on what God desires to do in people’s lives.

But what does this look like in practice? What do spiritual leaders actually do? How do we go about having a genuine impact on people’s spiritual lives? These are the questions we will be addressing in this conference.

Join us for a day of building your effectiveness as a spiritual leader. Your church, your ministry, your organization needs you to lead in a Christlike way!

www.BiblicalEldership.com/conferences.

March 20
2021

A BER SIMULCAST CONFERENCE

Coming to a Satellite
Site Near You

Alexander Strauch

For over 40 years he has served as an elder at Littleton Bible Chapel near Denver, Colorado. Additionally, he has taught philosophy and New Testament literature at Colorado Christian University. A gifted Bible teacher and popular speaker, Alex has helped thousands of churches worldwide through his expository writing ministry. Alex and his wife, Marilyn, reside in Littleton, Colorado, near their four adult daughters and 11 grandchildren.

Thomas Schetelich

is a Maryland attorney and a member of the United State Supreme Court Bar. He works with churches, Christian ministries and businesses nationally. He is an elder at Forge Road Bible Chapel, preaches nationwide, and serves in many ministries. He is the current President of the Maryland Bible Society and of the Baltimore School of the Bible, where he was an instructor for 25 years. He serves on the Boards for Christian Missions in Many Lands and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is the President of the Christian Professional Network, and the editor of its business monthly journal CPN On Point. Tom is married to Victoria Schetelich and lives in Baltimore City.

Chuck Gianotti

Chuck has held elder, leadership and teaching roles in a variety of churches, camps and college contexts. He is the founder and former editor of Elders' ShopNotes (an international bi-monthly ministry letter to elders), author of 12 books, including The Formation of the New Testament and the Day by Day expositional-devotional book series. Chuck has been married to Mary for over 43 years, and together they have two adult children and three grandchildren.